ARRUPE STATISTICS (ACSTA)

Discover, search, courses (https://catalog.luc.edu/course-search/)!

ACSTA 101 Statistics (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: D or better in ACMAT 100 or ACSTA ready as determined by ALEKS placement exam or standardized test score
This course provides an introduction to statistical reasoning and techniques in descriptive and inferential statistics and their applications in economics, education, genetics, medicine, physics, political science, and psychology.
IAI code: M1 902
Course equivalencies: ISOM/H/MGSC241/STAT103/ACST101
Outcomes:
Students will obtain a background in the fundamentals of descriptive and inferential statistics along with an understanding of their uses and misuses