FNAR 110 Foundations of Visual Art (3 Credit Hours)
Explores some of the fundamental principles, concepts, and historical and contemporary contexts that constitute a contemporary art practice. Provides experience across a range of modes of art making while emphasizing the basic concepts that underlie visual expression. Studio activity is augmented with research, discussion, and critique. Develop creative competencies. Utilize design elements to communicate themes and ideas. Expand cognitive capacities. Comprehend historical and contemporary approaches to visual art.

Outcomes:
Explore and express visual concepts

FNAR 112 Two-Dimensional Design (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of the basic elements and organizational systems of visual expression through the application of design principles and theory. Outcome: Students will be able manipulate various forms of media to produce desired spatial effects, and understand how to control by using such design methods as scale, perspective, and composition - the viewer's understanding of and reaction to visual information on a two-dimensional surface.

Course equivalencies: FNAR112/ACFNA112

FNAR 113 Drawing I (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the basic elements of drawing including: line, value, texture, volume, shape, proportion, perspective and visual composition. A variety of drawing materials will be explored with an emphasis on observation problems designed to build technical, perceptual, and personal expressive interpretation of form through the drawing idiom.

Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of basic drawing principles and vocabulary, through practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

FNAR 114 Painting I (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the basic elements of painting including: the application of drawing, design, and color principles. A variety of materials will be explored with an emphasis on oil painting. Observational problems will be introduced to build technical, perceptual, and personal expressive interpretation of form through the painting idiom.

Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of basic painting principles and vocabulary, through practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

FNAR 115 Foundations of Photography (3 Credit Hours)
This course introduces photography as a form of visual art. Students learn the technical concepts in order to develop their ability to express ideas through photography. The course also emphasizes strengthening visual literacy through lectures, discussions, and critiques. Requirements: A fully adjustable digital camera (DSLR) and an external hard drive are required. The course focuses on building the students’ visual literacy and understanding of photography as a form of visual art.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

Interdisciplinary Option: Film & Digital Media Studies, International Film & Media Studies

Course equivalencies: FNAR115/ICVM115/IFMS115

Outcomes:
Students will learn how to formulate and communicate ideas through photography

FNAR 116 Color Slide Photography (3 Credit Hours)
A non-darkroom, introductory course to the equipment, techniques and aesthetics of creative photography that emphasizes camera controls, principles of composition, concepts of color theory, the unique potential of the projected image, and personal expression. An adjustable 35mm camera is required. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding and application of exposure, depth of field, rendering motion, full frame composition, sequential imagery, balance of film and light source, and the functions of color, all of which support the practice of creative photography.

FNAR 118 Printmaking I (3 Credit Hours)
An exploration of the production of fine art multiples as they are created utilizing zinc and copper plates. Techniques of etching and engraving aquatint and color printing as well as innovative processes are taught. Outcome: Students will demonstrate understanding of the techniques needed to produce images on metal plates and alternative surface; the intrinsic qualities particular to expression in print media, recognize fine prints, specific techniques, and archival quality in historical examples, use intaglio presses as a means of production and form evaluative judgments about printed imagery.

FNAR 119 Watercolor Techniques (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the basic elements of watercolor painting including: the application of drawing, design, and color principles. A variety of techniques and materials will be explored including, watercolor paints and pencils, and brush and masking techniques. Observational problems will be introduced to build technical, perceptual, and personal expressive interpretation of form through the watercolor painting idiom.

Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of basic painting principles and vocabulary, through practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.

FNAR 120 Ceramics: Handbuilding (3 Credit Hours)
An exploration of various handbuilding techniques, surface design techniques, and firing ranges available to the contemporary ceramist. Students are encouraged to pursue individual expression in the context of a broad range of methods and creative concepts.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

Outcomes:
Students will be able to demonstrate the basics of successful construction and glaze techniques; demonstrate creative strategies and critical evaluation of the creative process; demonstrate an understanding of both historical and contemporary approaches to the medium and the role of the Ceramic artist in cultures past and present

FNAR 121 Ceramics: Wheelthrowing (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the potters’ wheel. Students learn basic throwing skills, explore utilitarian design concepts, and learn to balance spontaneous and practiced approaches to process. Emphasis is on the successful integration of craft and personal expression.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

Course equivalencies: FNAR220/FNAR121

Outcomes:
Students will be able to demonstrate basic wheelthrowing and glaze techniques; demonstrate creative strategies and critical evaluation of the creative process; demonstrate an understanding of both historical and contemporary approaches to the medium and the role of the Ceramic artist in cultures past and present
FNAR 123 Metalwork and Jewelry I (3 Credit Hours)
The methods and processes of construction using nonferrous metals applied to problems in design and function. Projects are designed to familiarize the student with processes in metalwork and the proper use of hand tools.

Outcomes:
Students will demonstrate an understanding of the fundamental characteristics of metal; the ability to cut, shape and manipulate metals; to express visual ideas in low and high relief; and to form judgments about design on other than flat surfaces

FNAR 124 Sculpture Foundations (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to three dimensional concepts and materials, and associated techniques, in the process of articulating a personal artistic statement. Students will be guided in the fabrication of various 3-D constructions employing a wide range of building materials such as plaster, wood, clay, foam board, paper, and metals.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

Outcomes:
Students will be able to translate two-dimensional sketches and drawings into expressive three dimensional forms; demonstrate basic sculpting techniques and creative strategies; provide critical evaluation of the creative process; and produce objects that are viewable in the round, structurally stable with masses and appendages proportionate to one another

FNAR 126 Metal Sculpture and Welding (3 Credit Hours)
This course introduces students to the manipulation of iron, steel and steel alloys. Students learn how to choose gauges of steel, cut with oxy-acetylene torch and metal cutting wheels and blades and attach steel by traditional welding techniques.

Outcomes:
Students will be able to operate a torch safely; cut and weld cleanly, file grind and polish, forge, hammer and shape steel sheeting; demonstrate the ability to convert two-dimensional ideas into cogent three-dimensional forms; demonstrate understanding and control over hazardous technical processes and demonstrate understanding of the evaluative criteria of metal work

FNAR 129 Printmaking-Monotypes (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction into the various methods of producing one of a kind highly individual prints from a vast array of printing surfaces. A variety of materials will be explored through assignments which encourage an understanding of technique, perceptual thinking and expression of form.

Outcomes:
Students will be able to demonstrate a functional knowledge of a wide variety of printing media, be able to utilize the basic tools particular to each medium and produce a consistent series of formal images through recognition of their expressive properties

FNAR 132 Visual Communication I (3 Credit Hours)
Course focus: This course initiates a professional sequence whereby the student receives an introduction to composition, typography, and historical and contemporary concepts in visual communication. It introduces students to page layout software (Adobe InDesign), its relationship to other software packages, and the technical aspects of digital typography. Learning

Outcomes:
Students gain an understanding of fundamental principles of visual communication emphasizing typography, the development technical skills in materials and techniques, and the ability to express formal and creative ideas

FNAR 152 Drawing China (3 Credit Hours)
This is an introductory drawing course. There are no pre-requisites nor prior experience need to succeed in this course. Beijing is our laboratory and the topic of all class drawings. Outcome: Students will be able to draw trees, buildings, automobiles, vegetables, human beings in real life situations and in perspective.

Interdisciplinary Option: Asian Studies

Course equivalencies: FNAR152/ASIA152

FNAR 160 The Crafts of China (3 Credit Hours)
This course examines the artisan crafts of China historically and technically. The course explores how and why the crafts appeared, their historical trajectory and demonstrates how the crafts improved technically. Ceramics, Bronze Castings and Wood works will serve as prototypes. Students will undertake independent researches. Outcome: Students will identify how the crafts of woodwork, bronze casting and ceramics evolved and how they are currently practiced in China. Students will articulate an understanding of the function of craft in Chinese culture as well compare and contrast it to the function craft in their own culture.

Interdisciplinary Option: Asian Studies

Course equivalencies: FNAR160/ASIA160

FNAR 170 Three-Dimensional Design (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of the basic elements and organizational systems of spatial expression through the application of design principles and theory. Outcome: Students will be able work with a variety of materials to produce three-dimensional objects in space, and understand how to control the viewer’s reaction to those objects through the manipulation of solidity, transparency, movement and time.

Course equivalencies: FNAR212/FNAR170

FNAR 190 Color Theory (3 Credit Hours)
Course focus: An examination of the nature of subtractive and additive color in its physiological, psychological, aesthetic, cultural, and symbolic dimensions through the application of past and current theory. Emphasis is placed on color mixing, color relationships, and understanding color terminology. Students develop proficiency using color in their work as well as gaining a fundamental understanding of the basic visual, aesthetic, and theoretical considerations of color use in art & design.

FNAR 195 Topics in Fine Arts Pre-Collegiate (3 Credit Hours)
This course consists of special topics in specific Fine Arts areas, and is offered for the Pre-College student. Outcome: While the specific area of study varies, the expectation is that the student will become familiar with the methods, materials and aesthetic properties of that artistic approach, as well as the technical means to control the expression.

FNAR 199 Art and Visual Culture (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the principles of art and their application to broader visual culture, this course explores the complex nature of art through an examination of its visual elements, techniques, functions, critical methodologies, and related social issues. The course takes advantage of Chicago’s artistic resources. Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of the elements of visual language; means of visual expression in diverse cultures and eras; media and techniques of art; artistic terminology; and critical approaches to the study of visual culture and related social issues. Students will acquire the skills to interpret art and visual culture in oral and written form.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience

Interdisciplinary Option: Film & Digital Media Studies, International Film & Media Studies

Course equivalencies: FNAR199/ICVM199/IFMS199/ACFNA1
FNAR 200 Global Art History: Prehistoric to 600 CE (3 Credit Hours)
A comprehensive survey that introduces students to the art, architecture, and material practices of global cultures from pre-history to the 7th Century CE. This course will study the internal and cross-cultural relationships between various art forms and the social, geo-political, spiritual, economic, and political contexts in which selected artifacts and monuments were made.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience
Interdisciplinary Option: Catholic Studies, European Studies, Italian Studies
Course equivalencies: FNAR200/FNAR200R
Outcomes:
Students will acquire skills to critically analyze formal expressions, materials, functions, meanings, and makers of art and material culture in relation to the historical contexts of ancient global societies.

FNAR 200R Art History: Pre-History to Renaissance in Rome (3 Credit Hours)
A general survey which explores the development of art in Western culture from pre-history through the sources of the Renaissance in the fourteenth century with a focus on Rome and Italy. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of the ideas, formal expressions, themes, techniques, and functions of art in relation to their cultural, social, and historical contexts.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience
Interdisciplinary Option: Rome Studies
Course equivalencies: FNAR200/FNAR200R

FNAR 201 Global Art History: 600-1800CE (3 Credit Hours)
A general survey which explores the development of global art from 540 through 1800.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience
Interdisciplinary Option: European Studies, Italian Studies
Course equivalencies: ACFNA 105 / FNAR 201
Outcomes:
Students will acquire skills to critically analyze formal expressions, materials, functions, meanings, and makers of art and material culture in relation to the historical contexts of early modern global societies.

FNAR 202 Global Art History: Modern Art (3 Credit Hours)
A comprehensive survey of major artistic movements from a global perspective, engaging key concepts, issues, and modes of production in the modern world. It examines evolving ideas about the forms, content, techniques, and functions of art from the late 18th century to today considered within its socio-political and historical context.

Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience
Interdisciplinary Option: European Studies, Film & Digital Media Studies, Global Studies, International Film & Media Studies
Course equivalencies: FNAR202/ICVM202/IFMS202
Outcomes:
Students will demonstrate knowledge of the key ideas, formal expressions, themes, techniques, and functions of modern art in relation to social-historical contexts and modern culture from a global perspective.

FNAR 203 Chicago: Face of a City (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of the history of the Chicago School of Architecture along with public sculpture and mural painting in Chicago, this course explores the changing trends of American public art, artists’ response to a public audience, and issues of social responsibility. Participation in class field trips is required. Outcome: Students will be able to identify the major social concerns of the city as well as the means by which visual arts can be integrated into its daily life. They will be able to recognize the major artists and recent artistic developments in their urban context.

Interdisciplinary Option: Urban Studies

FNAR 207 Women, Art, and Society (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of women artists in Western culture and the societies in which they worked from the medieval period to the present. Women’s artistic production, the styles and subject matter they embraced, and their relation to artistic trends of their era are explored within the context of social attitudes about gender. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of women’s contribution to the visual arts, the factors that impacted their participation in the art world, the underlying ways that gender constructions impact society, and feminist theory and methodologies related to art.

Interdisciplinary Option: Women & Gender Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR207/WOST207/WSGS207

FNAR 213 Drawing II (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 113 An intermediate level drawing course designed to extend the understanding of the visual elements of drawing introduced in FNAR 113
This course includes an emphasis on color, and an exploration of a broader range of drawing media. Observational and conceptual problems are introduced. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of more advanced drawing principles through expanded practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.

FNAR 214 Painting II (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 114 An intermediate level painting course designed to extend the understanding of the application of drawing, design, and color principles introduced in FNAR 114
This course will explore both oil and acrylic painting and a variety of substrates. Emphasis on the human figure and individualized conceptual problems will be introduced to build technical, perceptual, and personal expressive interpretation of form through the painting idiom. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of more advanced painting principles through expanded practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.

FNAR 215 Photography: Film and Darkroom (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 115 Foundations of Photography or Instructor Permission
A fully adjustable 35mm film camera (single-lens reflex camera) is required. This course expands the students’ knowledge of the photographic medium by introducing black and white film and darkroom printing. The students explore how the process and aesthetics of traditional black and white film make it unique from digital photography. The students will apply the process and aesthetic qualities that are distinct to black and white film photography in their own projects.

Interdisciplinary Option: Film & Digital Media Studies, International Film & Media Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR215/ICVM215/IFMS215
Outcomes:
The course covers the steps of working in a darkroom environment, from the use of the enlargers to processing an exposed print.

FNAR 218 Printmaking II (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 118 This course explores specialized work in intaglio, monotypes, and mixed media
Emphasis is placed on the development and perfecting of technique. Outcome: Students demonstrate understanding of mixed-media printing; knowledge of a wide range of printmaking media; apply drawing concepts to the materials of printmaking; produce a consistent body of work in a complex medium; recognize historical prototypes and articulate the differences to others; and form judgments needed to adapt image making in a highly technical area of expression.
FNAR 219 Photography: Digital Imaging (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 115 - Foundations of Photography
A fully adjustable digital camera (DSLR) and an external hard drive are required. The course focuses on advanced editing techniques in Photoshop in regards to color correction, color management, image compositing, and image manipulation. Students will also learn the technical and aesthetic concepts that are crucial components of the digital workflow to further develop their visual languages as photographic artists. The course examines possibilities with digital technology.
Interdisciplinary Option: Film & Digital Media Studies, International Film & Media Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR219/IFMS220
Outcomes:
Students learn more complex editing in Photoshop, how to operate a professional inkjet printer and the importance of paper selection

FNAR 221 Ceramic Science (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of practical and experimental approaches to applied chemistry as it relates to the ceramic arts. Students will learn the theory behind clay and glaze formulation, test a wide array of materials interactions; and learn practical skills in developing vitreous bodies, glass forming substances, and metallic oxide pigments.
Outcomes:
Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of inorganic compounds and their useful combinations in formulating ceramic bodies, glazes, and pigments; demonstrate knowledge of the effects of firing temperature and atmosphere on ceramic formulations; demonstrate knowledge of safe lab practices in the ceramics studio

FNAR 222 Sculpture/Ceramics: Form & Function (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 124 Sculpture Foundations and FNAR 120 Ceramics: Handbuilding or FNAR 121 Ceramics: Wheelthrowing or instructor permission
Expands student knowledge of materials, techniques and concepts of three-dimensional artwork. Explores the interrelationship between art, craft and design. Emphasizes the function of three-dimensional artworks historically and in contemporary practice. Visual and written research, personal reflection and group discussion are components of the course.
Course equivalencies: FNAR320/FNAR222
Outcomes:
Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of inorganic compounds and their useful combinations in formulating ceramic bodies, glazes, and pigments; demonstrate knowledge of the effects of firing temperature and atmosphere on ceramic formulations; demonstrate knowledge of safe lab practices in the ceramics studio

FNAR 223 Metalwork and Jewelry II (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 123 Advanced work in metalwork and jewelry including problems in the techniques of lost wax casting and enameling
Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate the ability to control materials with the addition of stones, found objects and other materials; design and cast works in the round; design a work and see it through from production to completion, and demonstrate knowledge of a wide range of metalwork techniques and their decorative and design potential
No course description is available

FNAR 224 Sculpture/Ceramics: Multiples (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 124 Sculpture Foundations and FNAR 120 Ceramics: Handbuilding or FNAR 121 Ceramics: Wheelthrowing or instructor permission
Expands student knowledge of materials, techniques and concepts of three-dimensional artwork. Examines traditional and experimental methodologies of modeling, mold making, and casting. Explores the conceptual possibilities for reproduction and multiplication in sculpture and ceramics. Visual and written research, personal reflection and group discussion are components of the course.
Outcomes:
Students develop technical, aesthetic, and conceptual strategies in the creation of three-dimensional artwork, and increased awareness of cultural / historical perspectives of the medium

FNAR 225 Metalwork and Jewelry III (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 123 Advanced work in metalwork and jewelry including problems in the techniques of lost wax casting and enameling
Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate the ability to control materials with the addition of stones, found objects and other materials; design and cast works in the round; design a work and see it through from production to completion, and demonstrate knowledge of a wide range of metalwork techniques and their decorative and design potential
No course description is available

FNAR 226 Sculpture/Ceramics: Texture (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 124 Sculpture Foundations and FNAR 120 Ceramics: Handbuilding or FNAR 121 Ceramics: Wheelthrowing or instructor permission
Expands student knowledge of materials, techniques and concepts of three-dimensional artwork. Examines traditional and experimental methodologies of modeling, mold making, and casting. Explores the conceptual possibilities for reproduction and multiplication in sculpture and ceramics. Visual and written research, personal reflection and group discussion are components of the course.
Outcomes:
Students develop technical, aesthetic, and conceptual strategies in the creation of three-dimensional artwork, and increased awareness of cultural / historical perspectives of the medium

FNAR 227 Printmaking (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 124 Sculpture Foundations and FNAR 120 Ceramics: Handbuilding or FNAR 121 Ceramics: Wheelthrowing or instructor permission
Expands student knowledge of materials, techniques and concepts of three-dimensional artwork. Examines traditional and experimental methodologies of modeling, mold making, and casting. Explores the conceptual possibilities for reproduction and multiplication in sculpture and ceramics. Visual and written research, personal reflection and group discussion are components of the course.
Outcomes:
Students develop technical, aesthetic, and conceptual strategies in the creation of three-dimensional artwork, and increased awareness of cultural / historical perspectives of the medium

FNAR 228 Ceramic Science II (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 221 Ceramic Science
A continuation of practical and experimental approaches to applied chemistry as it relates to the ceramic arts. Students will learn the theory behind clay and glaze formulation, test a wide array of materials interactions; and learn practical skills in developing vitreous bodies, glass forming substances, and metallic oxide pigments.
Outcomes:
Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of inorganic compounds and their useful combinations in formulating ceramic bodies, glazes, and pigments; demonstrate knowledge of the effects of firing temperature and atmosphere on ceramic formulations; demonstrate knowledge of safe lab practices in the ceramics studio

FNAR 229 Figure Studio (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 113 or FNAR 114 or permission of the instructor
An advanced level studio course designed to introduce the human form with an emphasis on the application of drawing and wet media
Skeletal anatomy and concepts of visualization and proportion will be explored. Observational and conceptual problems will be introduced. The course may be taken twice for credit. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the human form and anatomy through expanded practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR235/THTR235
FNAR 251 African-American Art (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the achievements of Americans of African descent beginning with African roots through the Harlem Renaissance to the contemporary work of such internationally recognized artists as Richard Hunt and Martin Puryear. Content may vary according to the particular focus of the instructor. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of the richness of African-American visual arts as they developed within and outside the purview of traditional art venues. Interdisciplinary Option: African Studies and the African Diaspora, Black World Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR251/BWS 251

FNAR 260 The Art of Bookbinding (3 Credit Hours)
An introduction to the basic methods of bookbinding exploring traditional and one-of-a-kind artists books. Sewn, glued and free form structures will form the basis for the study of image and text within the framework of a personal approach to alternative surfaces. Through selected projects students will utilize compositional elements and descriptive to communicate ideas and concepts in book form.
Outcomes:
Students will be able to construct and manipulate a wide variety of media using the grammar and language of the book form

FNAR 303 Visual Arts Pedagogy (3 Credit Hours)
This course explores the ideas of teaching and learning through the visual arts and arts integration as they pertain to teaching artists. Coursework includes lecture and discussion, readings, model teaching, and teaching artist visits. Students will learn art pedagogy, classroom management techniques, and to develop their ideas into a curricular format.
Outcomes:
Students will recognize perspectives and theories around learning through the visual arts, identify appropriate teaching content and techniques, and design appropriate visual arts lessons, aligning content and standards

FNAR 304 Paris in the Nineteenth Century (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of Nineteenth Century art in Paris as shaped by contemporary changes in the physical, social and economic life of the city. Outcome: Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of nineteenth century art and artists in the context of the emergence of a modern, industrial urban complex. Interdisciplinary Option: European Studies

FNAR 305 American Art to 1945 (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of American painting, sculpture, and architecture from the colonial period to the period immediately following World War II. Emphasis is placed on the development of specifically American art forms as they evolved from their dependency upon European sources. Outcome: Students will be able to recognize and demonstrate knowledge of major artists and artistic movements from the earliest days of the Republic when Europe served as a source of training and inspiration to the beginnings of modern times when global developments shifted the focus of artistic inspiration to New York.

FNAR 306 Contemporary Art 1945-Present (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of recent developments in American and European art beginning with the physical shift of the center of artistic authority from Paris to New York during and immediately after World War II. Outcome: Students will be able to recognize and demonstrate knowledge of major artists and artistic movements from the mid-twentieth century to the present day. They will also understand the major theoretical issues of the period.

FNAR 311 Advanced Studio (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 213 or FNAR 214 or equivalent The most advanced level studio course in painting and drawing and is designed to aid the student in developing a body of creative work from conception to production to presentation This course is conducted as an individual studio practicum between the instructor and student. The course may be taken twice for credit. Outcome: Students will demonstrate a strong understanding of their own creative process through the development of a cohesive body of work.

FNAR 312 Design III (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 170 An application of two- and three-dimensional principles and methodologies to advanced studio projects in fine and applied areas
No course description is available
Outcomes:
Students will be able to develop a series of multi-dimensional structures that utilize planar and spatial techniques to communicate a body of information and sensory experiences to others

FNAR 314 Painting III (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 114 and 214 An advanced level painting course designed to extend the understanding of the application of drawing, design, and color principles introduced in FNAR 114 and expanded in FNAR 214
This course will explore a range of painting materials and substrates. Emphasis is placed on critique and the development of conceptual problems to build technical, perceptual, and personal expressive interpretation. Outcome Students will develop a body of work through expanded practice and articulation of both formal and artistic ideas.

FNAR 316 Photography: Advanced Darkroom (3 Credit Hours)
Prerequisite FNAR 215-Photography: Film and Darkroom or FNAR 219-Photography:Digital Imaging or Instructor permission This advanced course encourages each student to synthesize the technical and creative concepts they have learned through the previous classes to develop a cohesive body of work that will form a portfolio.
Outcomes:
Students will learn to use medium and large format cameras, scan film and integrate analog photography into a digital workflow to produce high-resolution prints, developing a cohesive body of work

FNAR 318 Printmaking III (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 218 A continued exploration of Printmaking I, II which enables the student to enhance technical and conceptual skills in printmaking mediums
Outcome: Through selected projects students will demonstrate knowledge of contemporary trends in printmaking including new digital media and photomechanical processes. They will acquire analysis skills and functional critical knowledge of the grammar and language of prints.

FNAR 319 Lighting Techniques (3 Credit Hours)
Prerequisite FNAR 219-Photography: Digital Imaging or Instructor permission. A fully adjustable digital camera (DSLR) and an external hard drive are required. An advanced course that introduces students to techniques with both available and artificial lights. The students learn how the understanding and control of lighting becomes an essential component in the creation of photographic images.
Outcomes:
Students learn the equipment, materials, and techniques in shooting with available and artificial lights in the creation of photographic works that will creatively apply the technical concepts covered in the course
FNAR 322 Sculpture/Ceramics: Advanced Studio (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 222 and FNAR 224 or permission of instructor
Outcomes: Select and apply appropriate materials and methods to resolve complex visual and conceptual problems; and meaningfully discuss key issues
Students focus on developing independent, compelling art, through a more focused approach in comparison to Intermediate courses. Visual and written research and field trips are components, as is personal reflection and group discussion. Technical experiments and key concepts are geared specifically to the students interests and artistic goals. Create a portfolio of work build on independent investigation.
Course equivalencies: FNAR321/FNAR322

FNAR 332 Visual Communication III (3 Credit Hours)
Pre-requisites: FNAR 232 Visual Communication II Learning outcomes:
Students gain an understanding of how contemporary design is used to communicate
Course focus: This course includes the continued study of contemporary graphic design practice and further work in design with emphasis on analytical and creative approaches to problem solving across many types of media. Students are exposed to current best practices for effective self-promotion. They begin to develop a sophisticated body of work, advancing in their ability to critically evaluate visual communication.

FNAR 333 Explorations in Typography (3 Credit Hours)
Students explore both practical and experimental solutions utilizing typography as a means of communication and language visualization; investigating multifaceted modes of expression with emphasis placed on the study and creation of meaning relative to audience, culture, and history. Pre-requisite: FNAR 232
Interdisciplinary Option: Film & Digital Media Studies, International Film & Media Studies
Outcomes:
Students develop a heightened awareness of the nuanced role that typography plays as a delivery mechanism for narrative structures, information, language visualization, and alternate forms of expression

FNAR 334 Motion Design (3 Credit Hours)
An exploration of time-based motion graphics. Industry standard software is utilized as a vehicle for learning graphic animation concepts and as a tool for creative expression. They develop the ability and techniques to manipulate software in the production of motion graphics effectively combining image and typography.
Interdisciplinary Option: Film & Digital Media Studies, International Film & Media Studies
Outcomes:
Students gain an understanding of software skills and design basics

FNAR 338 Medieval Art (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of the art and architecture of the Christian world from 250 to 1453 CE, including the Early Christian, Byzantine, Carolingian, Romanesque, and Gothic periods as well as the influence of Islamic culture. Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of forms, ideas, themes, techniques, and functions of medieval art and their relation to relevant cultural, social, and historical contexts. They will acquire the skills to critically analyze these relationships and to understand the scholarship and issues related to medieval studies.
Interdisciplinary Option: Catholic Studies, Medieval Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR338/MSTU380/ROST338

FNAR 341 Renaissance Art - Painting (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of pictorial arts of the Renaissance in Northern and Southern Europe within the context of the material culture and society of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. Content may vary according to the particular focus of the instructor. Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of techniques, formats, themes, forms, functions, and patronage of European painting and its relation to society and culture and will acquire the skills to critically analyze these relationships.
Interdisciplinary Option: Catholic Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR341/ROST341

FNAR 342 Art in Rome (3 Credit Hours)
A survey of Rome's artistic heritage, including architecture, mosaic, painting, and sculpture from antiquity to the present day studied within the context of Rome's changing roles in Western European history. Classes are taught on site. Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of Rome's cultural role in history and of its artistic traditions and how they relate to their historical context.
Knowledge Area: Artistic Knowledge and Experience
Interdisciplinary Option: Catholic Studies, European Studies, Italian Studies
Course equivalencies: X-FNAR342/ROST342

FNAR 343 Baroque Art (3 Credit Hours)
An examination of art and architecture in Europe during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries with special concentration on the preeminence of Rome. (Rome Center students are expected to visit and study certain works of art in their original location). Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of forms, ideas, themes, techniques, and functions of seventeenth and eighteenth-century Western European art and their relation to relevant cultural, social and historical contexts. They acquire skills to critically analyze these relationships and to understand the scholarship and issues related to Baroque studies.
Interdisciplinary Option: Catholic Studies, European Studies, Italian Studies
