

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION CERTIFICATE

Available Online. The Graduate Certificate in Spiritual Direction is suited to applicants holding a Master's degree or above in theological or ministerial studies, psychology or counseling, psychiatric social work, or health care and who seek to develop and integrate spiritual direction skills and practices into their work. Those not holding such a qualifying degree should apply to the MA in Christian Spirituality, Concentration in Spiritual Direction (<https://catalog.luc.edu/graduate-professional/institute-pastoral-studies/christian-spirituality-spiritual-direction-concentration-ma/>).

For those who have discerned a call to work in specifically Jesuit contexts or in ways that integrate Ignatian Spirituality into their practice, IPS offers a track that trains students to be a director in the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius. This option requires that a student have completed the Spiritual Exercises within five years of commencing the Certificate or can commit to doing so during their first year (before entering the contextual education requirement of the Certificate).

Students in the Certificate in Spiritual Direction seeking to learn how to direct the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius must have completed the 30-day or the 30-week 19th Annotation format of the Exercises prior to beginning the Contextual Education component of their program. This requirement will be waived for those who have taken the complete Spiritual Exercises within 5 years of commencing their studies at IPS.

The Contextual Education requirement is adapted to enable students of the Certificate in Spiritual Direction to acquire the practical skills for and experience of spiritual direction in learning interaction with their peers and under the supervision of an experienced spiritual director. Students have the unique opportunity to learn to direct and use the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola in and for spiritual direction. They also have the possibility of learning to practice spiritual direction in a spiritual tradition other than Ignatian (e.g., Carmelite, Benedictine, Franciscan, etc.) under the guidance of a trained coach/mentor. Suitable field learning settings may be found in the Chicago area, elsewhere in the United States or in other countries, upon approval by Prof. Dan Rhodes, Faculty Coordinator of Contextual Education.

Applicants holding a Master's degree in psychology, counseling, or psychiatric social work must provide evidence of having completed prerequisite graduate level courses in biblical and foundational theology, typically a 3-credit hour course in Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament) or New Testament, and a 3-credit hour course in systematic theology.
