

MEDIEVAL STUDIES MINOR

The minor in Medieval Studies is designed for students who want to learn more about the Middle Ages in all its multifaceted splendor, without limiting themselves to a single department. This program encourages students to explore the medieval world through a variety of courses taught in our four core departments of History, Theology, English and Philosophy, plus course offerings in Classical Studies, Modern Languages and the various areas of Fine Arts. The Medieval Seminar (MSTU 300 Integrative Experience I & MSTU 301 Integrative Experience II), taught over two semesters, is an exciting opportunity to meet medievalists from other institutions, and to work closely with medievalist faculty here at Loyola on an interdisciplinary project of your own design.

Double-Dipping Policy

This department observes the CAS Double-Dipping Policy (<https://www.luc.edu/cas/double-dippingpolicy/>) regarding unique credits required for each declared major/minor. Not less than 6 credit hours in the individual student's transcript must be unique to this minor; that is, the courses in question are considered as actually fulfilling requirements of one minor, not of more than one minor or major.

Transfer-Student Residency Requirement

At least 9 credit hours of MSTU-MINR requirements must be completed at Loyola.
