

PRE-LAW ADVISING

About Us

Pre-Law Advisors are part of Loyola Career Services and provide information and guidance to Loyola students and alumni who are considering a legal career and applying to law school. The services provided include:

- Perspectives on coursework, skill acquisition, and career exploration
- Individual advising appointments; schedule via Handshake
- Monthly updates via the Pre-Law Newsletter (sign-up in Handshake (<https://luc.joinhandshake.com/surveys/38012/>)) about national law school trends and resources, local law school-related events and job and internship opportunities
- Law school admissions information sessions
- Relevant on-campus programming, including workshops on the law school application process, internships, and resume and personal statement writing
- Personalized guidance during the admissions process
- Referrals to other university resources
- More information can be found on the Pre-Law website (<http://luc.edu/prelaw/>)
