

HISTORICAL KNOWLEDGE AND INQUIRY

Area Goal: This Core Area of Inquiry will invite students to explore the human experience from a historical perspective.

Area Objectives: History is a form of inquiry, critical thinking, and understanding that encompasses all aspects of human experience and illuminates how the past shapes the present and thus the future. Through these courses, students will explore historical and contemporary perspectives with a view to fashioning a humane and just world. Students will have the opportunity to examine a range of historical evidence in multiple forms such as documents, films, diaries, images, artifacts, empirical data, and oral and digital histories.

CURRICULUM

Foundational/Tier I

Code	Title	Hours
Choose one of the following:		3
HIST 101	Evolution of Western Ideas Institutions to 17th Century
HIST 102	Evolution Western Ideas Institutions Since 17th Century
HIST 103	American Pluralism ^D
HIST 104	Global History Since 1500 ^D

D Courses with a Diversity Designation (<https://www.luc.edu/core/core-diversity/>) are indicated with a (D).

Tier II

Requirement for all Tier II Courses: HIST 101 Evolution of Western Ideas Institutions to 17th Century, HIST 102 Evolution Western Ideas Institutions Since 17th Century, HIST 103 American Pluralism, or HIST 104 Global History Since 1500. Please check requirements for declared majors/minors for exceptions.

Code	Title	Hours
Choose one of the following:		3
ANTH 107	Ancient Worlds ^D
CLST 274	World of Archaic Greece
CLST 275	World of Classical Greece
CLST 276	World of Classical Rome
CLST 277	World of Late Antiquity
HIST 208	East Asia Since 1500 ^D
HIST 209	Survey of Islamic History ^D
HIST 210	Introduction to Latin American History ^D
HIST 211	United States to 1865
HIST 212	United States Since 1865
HIST 213	Introduction to African History ^D

D Courses with a Diversity Designation (<https://www.luc.edu/core/core-diversity/>) are indicated with a (D).

AREA LEARNING OUTCOMES

After completing the two courses in this Area, students will be able to:

- recognize the importance of chronology, sequential development, and geography in shaping history.
- explain processes of historical continuity and change.
- assess and explain the relationship between historical events and cultural, social, and political forces.
- interpret varied forms of sources as historical evidence.
- illustrate how human and societal values, as well as methods of analysis and interpretation, shape and are shaped by historical context